FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 26.

THE MARQUIS OF BUTE.—The hero of "Lothair," the young Marquis of Bute, although admitted to be the greatest "catch," matrimonially speaking, in Great Britain, and one of the largest land-owners in the realm has never yet made his respects to the Queen at court. This singular circumstance is now accounted for by the Court Journal, which states that the Marquis promised his mother on her death-bed never to permit himself to be presented to Queen Victoria. The reason of this extraordinary promise, which the Marquis has religiously kept, is to be found in the implacable hostility of the Marchioness to the Queen. The late Marchioness of Bute was the sister of Lady Flora Hastings—the young and heautiful Lady Flora Hastings, the young and beautiful maid of honor, whom Queen Victoria, then a girl of eighteen, suffered soon after her accession to the throne to be driven from her presence, and hunted to death by slanders long since disproved. The cold and cruel conduct of the young sovereign at that time the family of the victim have never forgotten or forgiven. When the Queen some years ago visited Rothesay bay in her yacht, and lay for several days in sight of the superbresidence of the Marchioness of Bute, Mount Stuart House, the Marchioness not only refrained from attempting to pay her court to the Queen, but actually ordered all the blinds of the windows in Mount Stuart House to be kept closed so long as the royal yacht lay within sight of them. Time has not softened in the son the bitter sense of injustice which hardened the mother's heart. It is even said that horror at the notion of being obliged to consider Queen Victoria the head of the church plays no small part in in-ducing the Marquis of Bute to abandon that church for the communion of Rome.—New York World.

A SHOWER OF RICE.—Quite a singular phenomenon occurred in our city during the hail storm last week. Many of the drops of hail had in each of them a grain of rice. We have in our possession some of the rice, and are informed by the person who gathered it up that they held the hail in their hands until it melted, and that there is no doubt whatever about the matter. We leave it for the wise to tell how rice got into the clouds.—Norfolk Virg.

UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS. UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS.

A TITS LAST SESSION CONGRESS, AS an amendment to the army appropriation bill, directed the President to appoint a commission to ascertain and adjust the claims of all loyal citizens in the South for Quartermaster and Commissary supplies furnished to the United States during the war. Under the head of quartermaster are included hay, straw, wood, rent of houses and lots, grain, horses and mules, &c.—As commissary stores are included cattle and hogs, flour, corn meal, &c. As yet the rules which will be adopted by the commission concerning proof of loyalty and the furnishing of supplies are unknown. It is very necessary, however, that all claimants should have their claims presented at once, so as to have whatever claims presented at once, so as to have whatever benefit may result from priority of application,

The undersigned will receive and promptly attend to all claims of parties who deem themselves entitled to compensation under the above act of Congress. References by permission:

Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts unobstructed by the fifty per ent. clause, so-called, another opportunity offers to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of relief. The above-named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being United States Commissioner he will endeavor to visit ted St the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of several trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hill as promptly as in Richmond or elsewhere, and at much less expense to parties. It may be added that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which it is now believed will be secured to the beautyput under the bankrupt law is the only real bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only real relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts.
